LESSON OUTLINE ONE

GET TO KNOW GOD. PHILLIPIANS 3:10

Knowing God is full of benefits and persecution. Apostle Paul as a case study gave us beauty of knowing God:

It brings strength and delivery of ability to do exploits. Daniel 11:32

It ends fruitless efforts. Luke 5:1-7

It keeps you secured in the midst of dangers and opposition. Three Hebrew boys remained unperturbed even when they saw fiery furnace. Daniel 3:16-25.

It brings one to the desired end and fulfilment of dreams. Joseph still got his dreams actualized.

Knowing God builds your trust in God no matter the difficulties. Psalm 23.

It makes enemies unbalanced and bewildered. Haman was confused concerning Mordecai unyielding attitude to his threat.

There will be power to challenge adversaries. Exodus 34:29-35.

All battles are won in your favour.

LESSON OUTLINE TWO

STAY CONNECTED TO GOD

To stay connected to God means to remain attached to Him in visions, goals, obedience and absolute trust in His dynamic ability so that we maintain our identity as the branch, get nourished by the vine, produce fruits for the vine and be pruned regularly to produce more fruits. John 15:2. You are to stay connected to the VINE for;

Daily nourishment. 1 Corinthians. 2:10-16, 1 Timothy 3:16,

More fruitfulness through sharing of the gospel to the unsaved souls. Matthew 28:19,20, John 15:16

Regular Pruning through personal devotion, bible study and prayers. 1 Timothy 3:16, 17.

Intensive fellowship and discipline. You must not always stay at your comfort zone.

Identity's maintenance. Matthew 7:16

Instructions and avoiding distractions.

SUMMARY

Making life counts is the assignment given to all believers. Matthew 5:16. We all must do everything in our capacity to make sure we bring glory to God through our obedience, commitment to divine objectives and attainment to full stature in Christ.

CONCLUSION

Hebrews 12:1. We are surrounded by a cloud of witness who made impact in their generation despite the challenges they faced like Apostle Peter. Apostle Paul. Smith Wigglesworth, Catherine Kulman, etc. We have leaders and fathers in the Lord like our Daddy E.A Adeboye that have been and are still making positive impact in this generation.
