

RCCG OCEANIA

Holy Spirit & Power

ESTABLISHING GOD'S GOVERNMENT ON EARTH

AT A GLANCE

BIG IDEA

Explore how the outpouring of the Holy Spirit transforms desolate places and empowers believers to establish God's government on earth. Understand the spiritual authority given to believers and how it aligns with God's will to bring revival and restoration. Discover the eternal life in Christ that fuels this divine mission.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Isaiah 32:13-15

Genesis 1:26

John 17:3

1 John 5:11-13

Ephesians 6:10-12

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- The outpouring of the Spirit is crucial for transforming desolate places.
- God's government is established when He is given His rightful place.
- Believers are empowered by the life of God to establish His kingdom.
- Spiritual authority must be exercised in alignment with God's will.
- Knowing God is integral to participating in His government.

INTRODUCTION

The concept of establishing God's government on earth is deeply rooted in the transformative power of the Holy Spirit. This study explores how believers are called to participate in this divine mission by exercising spiritual authority, knowing God, and living out the eternal life given through Christ.

SCRIPTURE READING

- Isaiah 32:13-15 — Illustrates the transformation of desolate places through the outpouring of the Spirit.
- Genesis 1:26 — Highlights man's creation to establish God's dominion on earth.
- John 17:3 — Emphasizes the importance of knowing God as part of His government.
- 1 John 5:11-13 — Explains the concept of eternal life being in the Son.
- Ephesians 6:10-12 — Describes the spiritual warfare against principalities and powers.

KEY POINTS

1. THE OUTPOURING OF THE SPIRIT — The outpouring of the Holy Spirit is a pivotal event that transforms barren and desolate places into fruitful fields. This transformation is a fulfillment of God's promise of restoration and revival. The Spirit's presence brings life, growth, and renewal, setting the stage for God's government to be established on earth.
 - Pray for the Holy Spirit to fill and transform areas of your life that feel desolate.
 - Seek opportunities to be a vessel of God's Spirit in your community.
 - Reflect on areas in your life where you have witnessed the Spirit's transformative power.

Scripture: Isaiah 32:13-15

2. GOD'S SOVEREIGNTY AND DOMINION — God's government is established when His sovereignty is recognized and His desires are fulfilled. From the beginning, humanity was created to exercise dominion on earth as a reflection of God's authority. This mandate calls believers to align their actions with God's will, ensuring His kingdom is manifested in every aspect of life.
 - Evaluate how your daily actions reflect God's sovereignty in your life.
 - Commit to aligning your goals with God's desires for His creation.
 - Engage in activities that promote God's dominion in your community.

Scripture: Genesis 1:26

3. EMPOWERED BY ETERNAL LIFE — Believers are empowered by the eternal life given through Christ, which enables them to establish God's kingdom on earth. This life is not only a future promise but a present reality that fuels the believer's mission. Christ, as the hope of glory, is central to this empowerment, providing strength and purpose.
 - Meditate on the eternal life you have in Christ and how it empowers you daily.
 - Share the message of eternal life with those around you.
 - Live with the awareness that Christ is your hope and strength.

Scripture: 1 John 5:11-13

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

4. EXERCISING SPIRITUAL AUTHORITY — Believers are called to exercise spiritual authority in alignment with God's will. This involves engaging in spiritual warfare against principalities and powers that oppose God's kingdom. By standing firm in faith and utilizing the armor of God, believers can overcome these spiritual challenges and advance God's government.

- Identify areas in your life where you need to exercise spiritual authority.
- Equip yourself with the armor of God through prayer and Scripture study.
- Stand firm in faith against spiritual opposition.

Scripture: Ephesians 6:10-12

5. KNOWING GOD — Knowing God is integral to participating in His government. This knowledge goes beyond intellectual understanding; it involves a deep, personal relationship with God. As believers grow in their knowledge of God, they align more closely with His divine purpose and are better equipped to serve in His kingdom.

- Dedicate time daily to deepen your relationship with God through prayer and study.
- Seek to know God's character and will more intimately.
- Reflect on how your knowledge of God influences your actions and decisions.

Scripture: John 17:3

GROUP DISCUSSION

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.

OBSERVATION

- What changes occur in desolate places when the Spirit is poured out, according to Isaiah 32:13-15?
- How does Genesis 1:26 describe humanity's role in God's creation?
- What does John 17:3 reveal about the importance of knowing God?
- How is eternal life described in 1 John 5:11-13?
- What does Ephesians 6:10-12 teach about spiritual warfare?

INTERPRETATION

- Why is the outpouring of the Spirit essential for establishing God's government?
- How does recognizing God's sovereignty impact our daily lives?
- In what ways does eternal life empower believers to fulfill God's mission?
- What does it mean to exercise spiritual authority in alignment with God's will?
- How does knowing God influence our participation in His government?

APPLICATION

- How can you invite the Holy Spirit to transform areas of your life that feel barren?
- What steps can you take to align your actions with God's sovereignty?
- How can you live out the reality of eternal life in your daily interactions?
- In what practical ways can you exercise spiritual authority in your community?
- What practices can help you deepen your knowledge of God?

PRAYER FOCUS

- Pray for the Holy Spirit to fill and transform desolate areas in our lives and communities.
- Ask for wisdom and strength to exercise spiritual authority in alignment with God's will.
- Seek a deeper relationship with God to better understand and fulfill His divine purpose.

NEXT STEP

Reflect on how you can actively participate in establishing God's government by inviting the Holy Spirit into every aspect of your life.

CONCLUSION

Establishing God's government on earth is a divine mission that requires the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, recognition of God's sovereignty, empowerment through eternal life, and the exercise of spiritual authority. By knowing God and aligning with His will, believers can transform desolate places and advance His kingdom, fulfilling their role in His divine plan.