LIVING IN THE SUPERNATURAL REALITY

AT A GLANCE

BIG IDEA

The supernatural is not a matter of chance but a reality that can be understood and lived out by believers. Through a relationship with God, we are meant to manifest wonders, reflecting our identity as children of a miraculous God. This study explores how to embrace and demonstrate this supernatural life.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Genesis 1:1

Exodus 15:11

Exodus 34:10

Isaiah 8:18

Mark 16:17

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Believers are created to operate in the supernatural.
- The supernatural is a replicable reality, not luck.
- Our relationship with God should result in wonders.
- Manifesting wonders is part of our spiritual heritage.
- Understanding the supernatural protocol is essential.

INTRODUCTION

Believers are called to operate in the supernatural as part of their divine heritage. This study guide explores how to embrace and demonstrate a supernatural life, reflecting our identity as children of a miraculous God.

SCRIPTURE READING

- Genesis 1:1 — Illustrates the supernatural nature of creation.
- Exodus 15:11 — Moses recognizes God as one who does wonders.
- Exodus 34:10 — God promises to make marvels as part of His covenant.
- Isaiah 8:18 — Declares that God's people are for signs and wonders.
- Mark 16:17 — Jesus promises signs will follow believers.
- Psalms 77:14 — Affirms God as the doer of wonders.
- Zechariah 3:8 — Describes God's people as men greatly wondered at.

KEY POINTS

1. CREATED FOR THE SUPERNATURAL — Believers are inherently designed to operate beyond the natural realm, as seen in the creation narrative. From the beginning, God's creative power set the stage for a supernatural existence. This foundational truth underscores our potential to engage with the divine in extraordinary ways.

- Reflect on how creation itself is a supernatural act.
- Identify areas in your life where you can invite God's supernatural intervention.
- Pray for a deeper understanding of your supernatural identity.

Scripture: Genesis 1:1

2. UNDERSTANDING THE SUPERNATURAL — The supernatural is a structured reality that can be understood and applied, not a random occurrence. By studying Scripture and seeking God's wisdom, believers can learn to navigate and operate within this realm effectively.

- Study biblical accounts of supernatural events.
 - Seek guidance from the Holy Spirit to understand the supernatural.
 - Discuss with fellow believers about experiences of the supernatural.

3. WONDERS THROUGH RELATIONSHIP — A close relationship with God is expected to produce miraculous signs and wonders. As we draw near to Him, His power and presence become evident in our lives, resulting in extraordinary manifestations.

- Cultivate a deeper relationship with God through prayer and worship.
- Expect God to work wonders in your life as you grow closer to Him.
- Share testimonies of God's miraculous works with others.

Scripture: Exodus 34:10 Psalm 77:14

4. HERITAGE OF WONDERS — As children of a miraculous God, manifesting wonders is part of our spiritual identity and heritage. This truth empowers believers to live with confidence and expectation of God's supernatural intervention.

- Embrace your identity as a child of God with a heritage of wonders.
- Live with the expectation that God will work through you.
- Encourage others to recognize their spiritual heritage.

Scripture: Isaiah 8:18

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

5. DEMONSTRATING THE SUPERNATURAL — Believers are called to actively demonstrate the supernatural in their daily lives. This involves stepping out in faith and allowing God's power to be evident through us, impacting the world around us.

- Step out in faith to demonstrate God's power in your community.
- Pray for opportunities to show God's supernatural love and power.
- Encourage others to live out their supernatural calling.

Scripture: Mark 16:17

GROUP DISCUSSION

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.

OBSERVATION

- What does Genesis 1:1 reveal about the nature of God's creation?
- How does Exodus 15:11 describe God's ability to perform wonders?
- What promise does God make in Exodus 34:10 regarding marvels?
- According to Isaiah 8:18, what is the purpose of God's people?
- What signs are promised to follow believers in Mark 16:17?

INTERPRETATION

- How can believers understand and apply the supernatural in their lives?
- In what ways does a relationship with God lead to miraculous signs?
- What does it mean to have a heritage of wonders as a believer?
- How can we discern the structured reality of the supernatural?

APPLICATION

- How can you invite God's supernatural intervention in your daily life?
- What steps can you take to deepen your relationship with God?
- How can you actively demonstrate the supernatural in your community?
