Lesson Introduction. In acts 12:6, the bible says the night before Peter was to be executed, he was asleep, double-chained between two soldiers with others standing guard before the prison gate but he, Peter still broke through and got his liberty from deadly king Herod. As God's child, no matter what evil intention of wicked devil may be, final approval belongs to our Maker to break every prison gate for his children to escape.

In Acts 12:11 bible says Peter finally realized what had happened! It's really true he said to himself, the Lord has sent his angel and saved me from Herod and from what the Jews were hoping to do to me. There are deadly assignments of the adversaries over God's children, and these are;

Biblical Examples of how God frustrated devil and his evil intentions.

Mordecai and Jews that were sentenced to death by evil approval received revocation of evil counsel.

Joseph thought his dreams was lost until message of hope located him in prison. Genesis 41:14.

Last meal of a widow remained inexhaustible throughout her life time.

Four hundred vagabonds, those in trouble, in debt, the misfits that followed David later became mighty army that won great battles for Israel. 1 Samuel 22:1-4.
