

RCCG OCEANIA

Identity & Purpose

Commitment to God's Prophetic Program

At a Glance

BIG IDEA

In a world where many are merely existing, true life is found in committing to God's prophetic program. This involves a serious dedication to loving and serving Jesus, contributing to the salvation and maturity of believers, and preparing for spiritual empowerment. The spirit of revelation and God's new anointing await those who actively engage in their faith journey.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Revelation 2:18-29

Key Takeaways

- A serious Christian actively loves and serves Jesus.
- True living involves serving a purpose beyond oneself.
- Engagement in God's program includes contributing to the salvation and maturity of others.
- The spirit of revelation requires active pursuit and study of scripture.
- Preparation for God's new anointing involves serious commitment and readiness.

Introduction

Living purposefully in alignment with God's prophetic agenda requires serious commitment and active engagement in spiritual growth and evangelism. This study explores how believers can align themselves with God's plans and experience true life through dedication to His program.

Scripture Reading

- Revelation 2:18-29 — This passage emphasizes the need for purification and readiness for God's prophetic agenda.

Key Points

1. Be a Serious Christian — A serious Christian is defined by their commitment to love and serve Jesus, not just by church attendance. This involves a conscious decision to be part of God's program. It requires prioritizing one's relationship with Jesus above all else and actively seeking to fulfill His will in daily life.
 - Evaluate your current level of commitment to Jesus.
 - Identify ways to actively serve Jesus in your community.
 - Set aside regular time for prayer and scripture study.

Key Points (cont.)

2. Live Purposefully — Living purposefully means serving a purpose larger than oneself. It is the difference between merely existing and truly living. This involves recognizing the unique role each believer plays in God's plan and striving to fulfill it with intention and passion.
 - Reflect on your life's purpose and how it aligns with God's program.
 - Seek opportunities to serve others and advance God's kingdom.
 - Commit to personal growth and development in your faith journey.
3. Engage in God's Program — Contribute to the salvation and maturity of believers by actively participating in evangelism and spiritual growth activities. This engagement is crucial for the advancement of God's program and requires dedication to sharing the gospel and nurturing fellow believers.
 - Participate in evangelistic efforts within your community.
 - Mentor or disciple a fellow believer to encourage their spiritual growth.
 - Join a ministry or group focused on outreach and service.
- Scripture: Revelation 2:18-29
4. Seek Revelation — The spirit of revelation comes to those who actively study scripture and seek God's wisdom, not to those who are passive in their faith. This pursuit involves a deep desire to understand God's will and apply it to one's life.
 - Dedicate time each day to studying the Bible.
 - Pray for wisdom and understanding as you read scripture.
 - Engage in discussions with others to gain new insights.
5. Prepare for God's Anointing — Position yourself for God's new anointing by being serious about your faith and ready for His prophetic program. This preparation involves spiritual readiness and a willingness to embrace the changes God brings.
 - Examine areas of your life that need spiritual growth.
 - Be open to new opportunities and challenges in your faith journey.
 - Pray for God's guidance and empowerment in your life.

Group Discussion

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.

Observation

- What characteristics define a serious Christian according to the passage?
- How does the passage describe the church's role in God's prophetic program?
- What warnings or encouragements are given to the church in Revelation 2:18-29?

Interpretation

- Why is it important to live purposefully in alignment with God's agenda?
- How does engaging in God's program contribute to the salvation and maturity of believers?
- What does it mean to seek the spirit of revelation in one's faith journey?

Application

- In what ways can you increase your commitment to serving Jesus?
- How can you actively participate in advancing God's program in your community?
- What steps will you take to prepare for God's new anointing in your life?

Prayer Focus

- Pray for a deeper commitment to God's prophetic program.
- Ask for wisdom and revelation to understand and fulfill your purpose.
- Seek empowerment for active engagement in evangelism and spiritual growth.

Next Step

Reflect on your current level of commitment and identify specific ways to align more closely with God's prophetic agenda.

Conclusion

Committing to God's prophetic program requires a serious dedication to loving and serving Jesus, living purposefully, and engaging in spiritual growth and evangelism. By seeking revelation and preparing for God's anointing, believers can align themselves with His plans and experience the fullness of life He offers.