

RCCG OCEANIA

Identity & Purpose

Vision and Self-Discipline in Faith

At a Glance

BIG IDEA

Discover how vision acts as a guiding force in decision-making and discipline. Learn from biblical teachings and historical examples like Corrie Ten Boom and Walt Disney, who exemplified faith and preparation. Understand how these principles can transform your life and align you with God's plan.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Habakkuk 2

Hebrews 11:6

1 Corinthians 6:12

Key Takeaways

- Vision provides direction and purpose in life.
- Self-discipline is essential for achieving your vision.
- Faith involves preparation and planning for the future.
- Decisions should be guided by what is beneficial and aligns with your vision.
- The power of choice is a significant responsibility given by God.

Introduction

Vision and self-discipline are pivotal elements in fulfilling God's purpose for our lives. By understanding and applying these principles, we can align our actions with divine intentions and make meaningful progress toward our goals.

Scripture Reading

- Habakkuk 2 — Illustrates the importance of waiting for a vision to come to fruition.
- Hebrews 11:6 — Explains that faith is necessary to please God and involves seeing the unseen.
- 1 Corinthians 6:12 — Emphasizes making decisions based on what is beneficial.

Key Points

1. The Power of Vision — Vision acts as a guiding force, providing direction and purpose. It disciplines you to make decisions correctly and aligns your actions with God's plan. Vision is not just about seeing the ...

Key Points (cont.)

1. The Power of Vision (cont.) — future but understanding the steps needed to reach it. Figures like

Corrie Ten Boom exemplified how a strong vision can lead to impactful lives.

- Identify your personal vision and write it down.
- Reflect on how your current actions align with this vision.
- Seek God's guidance in refining your vision.
- Share your vision with a trusted friend or mentor for accountability.

Scripture: Habakkuk 2

---

2. The Role of Self-Discipline — Self-discipline is crucial for achieving your vision. Without it, failure is inevitable, as life will impose discipline if you do not. Self-discipline involves making choices that align with your vision, even when they are difficult. It requires consistency and perseverance.

- Set specific goals that require self-discipline to achieve.
- Create a daily routine that supports your vision.
- Identify areas where you struggle with discipline and seek improvement.
- Celebrate small victories to maintain motivation.

---

3. Faith and Preparation — Preparation is the highest act of faith, proving belief in the unseen. It involves planning and readiness for the vision to manifest. Faith is not passive; it requires active steps toward the future you believe in. Those who prepare are ready when opportunities arise.

- List the steps needed to prepare for your vision.
- Pray for guidance and strength to take these steps.
- Regularly review and adjust your plans as needed.
- Trust in God's timing and remain patient.

Scripture: Hebrews 11:6

Key Points (cont.)

4. Decision-Making and Choice — The power of choice is a significant gift from God. Decisions should be made based on what is beneficial and aligns with your vision. Not all permissible actions are beneficial; wisdom is needed to discern the best path. The Apostle Paul reminds us to consider the impact of our choices.

- Evaluate your decisions based on their alignment with your vision.
- Seek counsel from wise and trusted individuals.
- Pray for discernment in making choices.
- Consider the long-term consequences of your decisions.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 6:12

Group Discussion

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.

Observation

- What does Habakkuk 2 teach us about vision?
- How does Hebrews 11:6 define faith?
- What does 1 Corinthians 6:12 say about decision-making?

Interpretation

- Why is vision important in fulfilling God's purpose?
- How does self-discipline relate to achieving our vision?
- In what ways does preparation demonstrate faith?
- What role does choice play in aligning with God's plan?

Application

- How can you develop a clearer vision for your life?
- What steps can you take to improve your self-discipline?
- How can you actively prepare for the future you envision?
- What criteria will you use to make beneficial decisions?

Prayer Focus

- Pray for clarity in your personal vision.
- Ask for strength to maintain self-discipline.
- Seek guidance in aligning actions with God's plan.

Next Step

Reflect on your current vision and identify steps to align it more closely with God's purpose for your life.

Conclusion

Vision and self-discipline are essential components in living a life aligned with God's purpose. By embracing these principles, we can make informed decisions, prepare for the future, and fulfill the unique calling God has placed on our lives.