DIVINE ENLARGEMENT THROUGH OBEDIENCE

AT A GLANCE

BIG IDEA

Throughout the Bible, God demonstrates His desire to enlarge His people, expanding their capacity and influence to fulfill His covenant purposes. This enlargement is not merely about material wealth but involves spiritual growth, increased authority, and greater impact. By aligning with God's prophetic words and remaining obedient, believers can experience divine enlargement in their lives.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Genesis 12:1-3

Isaiah 54:1-3

Deuteronomy 12:20

Psalm 18:19

1 Chronicles 4:10

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- God's enlargement is a fulfillment of His covenant purposes.
- Obedience to God's instructions is crucial for experiencing enlargement.
- Prophetic words provide direction and focus for divine enlargement.
- Enlargement involves spiritual growth and increased influence.
- Prayer and intercession are vital in the process of enlargement.

INTRODUCTION

The concept of divine enlargement is woven throughout Scripture, illustrating how God desires to expand the capacity and influence of His people. This expansion is not solely about material gain but encompasses spiritual growth and increased authority. By understanding and aligning with God's instructions, believers can experience this divine enlargement in their lives.

SCRIPTURE READING

- Genesis 12:1-3 — God's promise to Abraham highlights the covenant purpose of enlargement.
- Isaiah 54:1-3 — God commands His people to prepare for growth and expansion.
- Deuteronomy 12:20 — God's promise of enlargement is a command to expect growth.
- Psalm 18:19 — God delights in His people and brings them into a large place.
- 1 Chronicles 4:10 — Jabez's prayer for enlargement shows the power of asking God for growth.

KEY POINTS

1. UNDERSTANDING DIVINE ENLARGEMENT — Enlargement is a divine act that expands a person's capacity and influence, fulfilling God's covenant purposes. It is not limited to material wealth but includes spiritual growth and increased authority. This concept is evident in God's promise to Abraham, where He assures him of becoming a great nation. Similarly, the psalmist acknowledges God's role in bringing His people into a spacious place, signifying freedom and growth.

- Reflect on areas in your life where you need God's enlargement.
- Seek God's guidance on how to align with His covenant purposes.
- Identify ways to grow spiritually and increase your influence.

Scripture: Genesis 12:1-3 Psalm 18:19

2. THE ROLE OF OBEDIENCE — Obedience to God's instructions is crucial for experiencing His enlargement. Aligning with His prophetic words and being faithful in small things prepares believers for greater responsibilities. Isaiah's prophecy encourages God's people to prepare for growth, while Deuteronomy emphasizes the expectation of expansion as a command.

- Evaluate your life for areas where obedience is lacking.
- Commit to following God's instructions in both small and large matters.
- Prepare for growth by aligning your actions with God's prophetic words.

Scripture: Isaiah 54:1-3 Deuteronomy 12:20

3. PROPHETIC WORDS AND DIRECTION — Prophetic words provide direction and focus, helping believers align with God's agenda for enlargement. Without them, one may become ineffective by being involved in too many things. Prophetic guidance helps prioritize and concentrate efforts on what truly matters in God's plan.

- Seek prophetic words that align with God's purposes for your life.
- Focus on activities that align with these prophetic directions.
- Avoid distractions by concentrating on God's revealed agenda.

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

- 4. PRAYER AND INTERCESSION — Engaging in prayer and intercession is vital for divine enlargement. It prepares the heart and aligns believers with God's timing and purposes. Jabez's prayer is a powerful example of how asking God for growth can lead to significant enlargement.
- Dedicate time daily for prayer and intercession.
 - Pray specifically for areas where you seek God's enlargement.
 - Align your prayers with God's promises and purposes.

Scripture: 1 Chronicles 4:10
