

RCCG OCEANIA

Relationships

RECOGNIZING GOD'S SIGNS IN RELATIONSHIPS

AT A GLANCE

BIG IDEA

Relationships are a significant part of life, and discerning God's will in them is crucial. By recognizing signs such as peace, conflicting values, and repeated red flags, believers can align their relationships with God's purpose. This study explores how the Holy Spirit guides through these markers, ensuring that relationships foster spiritual growth and harmony.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Galatians 5:22

Proverbs 3:5-6

Amos 3:3

2 Corinthians 6:14

Proverbs 27:12

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Peace is a confirmation from the Holy Spirit about the rightness of a relationship.
- Conflicting values signal a misalignment with God's will.
- Repeated red flags are divine warnings to reconsider a relationship.
- Unanswered prayers may indicate that a relationship is not aligned with God's plan.
- Spiritual growth should be a hallmark of a God-centered relationship.

INTRODUCTION

In our journey through life, relationships play a pivotal role in shaping who we are and how we grow spiritually. Recognizing God's signs in these relationships is essential for aligning them with His divine purpose. This study will explore how peace, values, and spiritual alignment serve as markers of God's guidance in our relationships.

SCRIPTURE READING

- Galatians 5:22 — Peace is mentioned as a fruit of the Spirit, indicating alignment with God's will.
- Proverbs 3:5-6 — Encourages trusting in the Lord for guidance rather than relying on personal understanding.
- Amos 3:3 — Highlights the importance of agreement in relationships.
- 2 Corinthians 6:14 — Advises against being unequally yoked with unbelievers.
- Proverbs 27:12 — Warns that the prudent see danger and take refuge.

KEY POINTS

1. PEACE AS A DIVINE MARKER — Peace acts as a signpost from the Holy Spirit, confirming the rightness of decisions in relationships. It is a fruit of the Spirit that should be present when a relationship aligns with God's will. When peace is absent, it may indicate a need to reevaluate the relationship's direction. The presence of peace brings assurance and confidence in the path chosen.

- Reflect on whether you feel peace in your current relationships.
- Seek the Holy Spirit's guidance when peace is lacking.
- Pray for discernment to recognize God's peace in your decisions.

Scripture: Galatians 5:22 Philippians 4:7 Isaiah 26:3

2. IDENTIFYING CONFLICTING VALUES — Conflicting values within a relationship are clear indicators of misalignment with God's purpose. Agreement in core beliefs is essential for a harmonious relationship. When values clash, it can lead to discord and hinder spiritual growth. Recognizing these conflicts early can prevent future strife and guide you towards relationships that honor God.

- Evaluate the core values shared in your relationships.
- Discuss any value conflicts with those involved.
- Align your relationships with God's values and teachings.

Scripture: Amos 3:3 2 Corinthians 6:14 Ephesians 4:3

3. HEEDING RED FLAGS — Repeated red flags are divine warnings to reconsider a relationship. These often reveal character traits or behavioral patterns that are not conducive to spiritual growth. Ignoring these warnings can lead to deeper issues and spiritual stagnation. Being attentive to these signs can protect you from harm and guide you towards healthier relationships.

- Identify any recurring red flags in your relationships.
- Seek counsel from trusted spiritual advisors.
- Pray for wisdom to make decisions that honor God.

Scripture: Proverbs 27:12 Matthew 7:17-18

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

4. UNDERSTANDING UNANSWERED PRAYERS — Unanswered prayers for change in a relationship may indicate that it is not aligned with God's will. Trusting in God's plan is crucial when prayers seem to go unanswered. This requires patience and faith, believing that God knows what is best for your spiritual journey. Unanswered prayers can be a sign to reevaluate the relationship's place in your life.

- Reflect on any unanswered prayers related to your relationships.
- Trust in God's timing and plan for your life.
- Seek God's guidance in understanding His will for your relationships.

Scripture: Proverbs 3:5-6 Psalm 84:11 Romans 8:28

GROUP DISCUSSION

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.

OBSERVATION

- What does Galatians 5:22 say about the role of peace in our lives?
- How does Proverbs 3:5-6 guide us in seeking God's direction?
- What is the significance of agreement in relationships according to Amos 3:3?
- Why does 2 Corinthians 6:14 warn against being unequally yoked?

INTERPRETATION

- How can peace be a sign of God's approval in a relationship?
- What are the dangers of conflicting values in a relationship?
- Why might God use red flags to warn us about certain relationships?
- How should we interpret unanswered prayers concerning our relationships?

APPLICATION

- How can you cultivate peace in your current relationships?
- What steps can you take to address conflicting values with someone close to you?
- How can you become more attentive to red flags in your relationships?
- What can you do to trust God's plan when prayers seem unanswered?

PRAYER FOCUS

- Seek Peace in Relationships
- Discern Conflicting Values
- Recognize Red Flags
- Trust God's Guidance

NEXT STEP

Reflect on your current relationships and seek the Holy Spirit's guidance to align them with God's purpose.

CONCLUSION

Recognizing God's signs in relationships requires discernment and a willingness to align with His will. By seeking peace, identifying conflicting values, heeding red flags, and understanding unanswered prayers, believers can ensure their relationships contribute to spiritual growth and harmony. Trusting in the Holy Spirit's guidance will lead to relationships that honor God and fulfill His purpose for our lives.

© RCCG
OCEANIA.

Adapted from Myles Munroe on Relationships' teachings: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rlkstu7qZJY>