- Engaging the blood of Jesus is crucial for victory over sin.
- Seeking God's kingdom first ensures all other needs are met.

INTRODUCTION

Sanctification is a transformative process that aligns believers with God's will, opening the door to divine favor and blessings. By examining the lives of biblical figures such as Joseph and Abraham, we can understand how sanctification and obedience lead to overcoming iniquity and living a life of excellence. This study explores the power of the blood of Jesus and the importance of prioritizing God's kingdom in our lives.

SCRIPTURE READING

- 1 Timothy 4:7-8 — Sanctification is profitable to all things, offering benefits in this life and the next.
- Genesis 39:1-4 — Joseph's sanctification leads to divine favor and success.
- Exodus 7:10-12 — Illustrates how godliness triumphs over iniquity.
- Hebrews 9:14 — The blood of Christ purges our conscience, enabling us to serve God.
- Matthew 6:33 — Prioritizing God's kingdom leads to provision and blessings.

KEY POINTS

1. THE VALUE OF SANCTIFICATION — Sanctification is the most valued asset for believers, offering benefits in all aspects of life. It is essential for accessing divine favor and blessings. Through sanctification, believers are set apart for God's purposes, enabling them to live a life that reflects His holiness and righteousness. Joseph's life is a testament to how sanctification can lead to divine favor and success, even in challenging circumstances.
 - Reflect on areas of your life that need sanctification.
 - Pray for strength to pursue holiness daily.
 - Seek accountability with fellow believers in your sanctification journey.

Scripture: 1 Timothy 4:7-8 Genesis 39:1-4

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

2. OBEDIENCE AS A TEST — Obedience is a necessary test that believers must pass to move to the next level of blessings. Abraham's example shows the importance of obedience in receiving God's promises. When God called Abraham to leave his homeland, his obedience set the stage for the fulfillment of God's promises. Similarly, our obedience to God's commands is a demonstration of our faith and trust in Him.

- Identify areas where God is calling you to obedience.
- Commit to following God's commands, even when it's challenging.
- Reflect on the blessings that follow obedience in your life.

Scripture: Genesis 22:1-18

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

3. GODLINESS OVERCOMES INIQUITY — The mystery of godliness has the power to overcome the mystery of iniquity, as demonstrated by Aaron's rod swallowing the magicians' rods. This event symbolizes the triumph of God's power over the forces of evil. In our lives, godliness equips us to stand firm against the schemes of Satan and overcome the temptations of sin.

- Cultivate a lifestyle of godliness through prayer and Scripture study.
- Recognize and resist the temptations of iniquity in your life.
- Trust in God's power to overcome evil.

Scripture: Exodus 7:10-12

4. POWER OF THE BLOOD OF JESUS — Engaging the blood of Jesus is crucial for purging our conscience from dead works and achieving victory over sin. The blood of Christ cleanses us, enabling us to serve God with a pure heart. This purification process is essential for maintaining a close relationship with God and living a life that honors Him.
 - Regularly confess and repent of sins, trusting in the cleansing power of Jesus' blood.
 - Meditate on the significance of Jesus' sacrifice for your life.
 - Seek to serve God with a purified conscience.

Scripture: Hebrews 9:14

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

5. SEEK FIRST THE KINGDOM — By seeking God's kingdom and righteousness first, believers ensure that all other needs are met, aligning with God's will and receiving His blessings. This principle encourages us to prioritize our relationship with God above all else, trusting that He will provide for our needs as we focus on His purposes.
 - Evaluate your priorities to ensure God's kingdom is first.
 - Trust in God's provision as you focus on His righteousness.
 - Encourage others to seek God's kingdom in their lives.

Scripture: Matthew 6:33
