KINGDOM MANDATE OF JESUS CHRIST

AT A GLANCE

BIG IDEA

Jesus Christ's mission was centered on the kingdom of God, emphasizing the need for repentance and alignment with God's jurisdiction. As ambassadors of Christ, believers are called to preach this kingdom message to all nations, fulfilling God's original plan for humanity. Understanding this mandate is crucial for restoring divine dominion on earth.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Matthew 24

Matthew 4:17

Genesis

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Jesus' primary message was the kingdom of God.
- The kingdom of God is a jurisdiction of divine influence.
- Every believer has a specific assignment in God's kingdom.
- The gospel of the kingdom must reach all nations before the end comes.
- Believers are ambassadors of Christ, representing His kingdom on earth.

INTRODUCTION

The Kingdom Mandate of Jesus Christ is a profound call for believers to understand and engage with the mission of preaching the kingdom of God. This mandate is rooted in God's original plan for humanity to exercise dominion on earth under His authority. As followers of Christ, we are tasked with spreading this message globally, acting as His ambassadors and restoring divine influence in the world.

SCRIPTURE READING

Matthew 24 — This passage highlights the necessity of preaching the kingdom to all nations before the end of the world.

Matthew 4:17 — Jesus begins His ministry by declaring the arrival of the kingdom of heaven, setting the tone for His mission.

Genesis — Understanding God's original plan for humanity and dominion on earth.

KEY POINTS

1. UNDERSTANDING GOD'S PLAN — God's original plan involved humanity exercising dominion on earth under His authority. This plan is central to the kingdom mandate. In Genesis, we see God's intention for humans to steward the earth, reflecting His sovereignty and glory. This divine purpose is foundational to understanding our role in God's kingdom.

- Reflect on how you can exercise stewardship in your daily life.
- Identify areas where you can align more closely with God's original plan.
- Pray for wisdom to understand your role in God's kingdom.

2. JESUS' KINGDOM MESSAGE — Jesus' mission was to preach the kingdom of God, emphasizing repentance and alignment with God's rule. His message was clear: the kingdom of heaven is at hand, and it requires a response of repentance and faith. This call to action is as relevant today as it was during His earthly ministry.

- Consider how you can incorporate the message of the kingdom in your conversations.
- Examine areas of your life that need alignment with God's rule.
- Share the message of repentance and the kingdom with someone this week.

Scripture: Matthew 4:17

3. ROLE OF AMBASSADORS — Believers are called to act as ambassadors of Christ, representing His kingdom and spreading its message globally. As ambassadors, we carry the responsibility to reflect the values and principles of God's kingdom in our interactions and decisions. This role is both a privilege and a duty, requiring commitment and intentionality.

- Identify ways you can represent Christ in your community.
- Commit to learning more about the values of God's kingdom.
- Engage in activities that promote the kingdom message.

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

4. RESTORING DOMINION — The kingdom mandate involves restoring God's dominion on earth through the influence of His kingdom. This restoration is not just a future hope but a present reality that believers are called to participate in. By living out kingdom principles, we contribute to the restoration of God's intended order and purpose for creation.

- Seek opportunities to influence your environment with kingdom values.
- Pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance in restoring God's dominion in your life.
- Engage with others to discuss how to bring about kingdom restoration.
