

RCCG OCEANIA

Faith & Trust

GOD'S VENGEANCE AND JUSTICE

AT A GLANCE

BIG IDEA

God's vengeance is not about human revenge but divine justice that ends wickedness and protects His people.

Through prayer, faith, and commitment to God's kingdom, believers can experience deliverance from torment and harassment. Prophets serve as agents of this divine justice, ensuring that God's will is executed on earth.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Romans 12:19

Psalm 94:1

Isaiah 54:14-17

Zechariah 2:8

Numbers 23:23

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- Vengeance belongs to God and is a form of divine justice.
- Believers are called to pray for God's intervention against wickedness.
- Prophets act as agents of God's vengeance, executing His will.
- Every child of God is protected and untouchable by evil forces.
- Commitment to God and His kingdom is essential for experiencing His protection.

INTRODUCTION

The concept of vengeance often evokes thoughts of personal revenge, but in the biblical context, it is a profound expression of God's justice. This study explores how God's vengeance serves as a means to end wickedness and protect His people, emphasizing the role of prayer, faith, and prophetic intervention.

SCRIPTURE READING

- Romans 12:19 — Emphasizes that vengeance is God's responsibility, not ours.
- Psalm 94:1 — A call for God to reveal Himself as the God of vengeance.
- Isaiah 54:14-17 — Promises protection and victory over adversaries.
- Zechariah 2:8 — Affirms the untouchable status of God's people.
- Numbers 23:23 — Declares that no enchantment can prevail against God's people.
- 1 Samuel 2:6 — Describes God's power over life and death.
- Exodus 12:12 — God's judgment upon the gods of Egypt as a demonstration of His power.
- Ecclesiastes 8:11 — Warns that delayed judgment encourages continued evil.

KEY POINTS

1. UNDERSTANDING DIVINE VENGEANCE — God's vengeance is a means to end wickedness and establish justice. It is not human revenge but a divine act that ensures righteousness prevails. This form of justice is rooted in God's character and His desire to protect His people and uphold His standards of righteousness.
 - Reflect on situations where you have sought personal revenge and consider how to entrust these to God.
 - Pray for God's justice to prevail in areas of personal or communal injustice.
 - Study the character of God in Scripture to understand His justice.

Scripture: Romans 12:19 Psalm 94:1

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

2. ROLE OF PROPHETS — Prophets are divinely appointed agents who execute God's vengeance, ensuring His will is done on earth. They serve as intermediaries who communicate God's messages and enact His justice, often bringing warnings and calls for repentance.

- Identify modern-day prophetic voices that align with biblical truth.
- Pray for discernment to recognize true prophetic messages.
- Consider how you can be a voice for justice in your community.

Scripture: Psalm 74:9-12 Exodus 12:12

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

3. BELIEVERS' PROTECTION — Every believer is protected by God and is untouchable by evil forces, as they are under divine protection. This assurance is rooted in God's promises and His covenant with His people, providing peace and security amidst adversity.

- Meditate on God's promises of protection in your daily prayers.
- Share testimonies of God's protection with others to encourage faith.
- Trust in God's sovereignty over situations that seem threatening.

Scripture: Zechariah 2:8 Isaiah 54:14-17

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

4. ACTIVATING GOD'S JUSTICE — Through prayer, faith, and commitment to God's kingdom, believers can invoke God's justice and experience deliverance. This involves actively seeking God's intervention and aligning one's life with His purposes.
- Commit to regular prayer for God's justice in your life and community.
 - Strengthen your faith through study and fellowship with other believers.
 - Engage in acts of service that reflect God's justice and love.

Scripture: Luke 18:1 Galatians 3:29

GROUP DISCUSSION

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.

OBSERVATION

- What does Romans 12:19 say about vengeance?
- How is God described in Psalm 94:1?
- What promises are given in Isaiah 54:14-17 regarding protection?

INTERPRETATION

- Why is vengeance considered God's responsibility rather than ours?
- What role do prophets play in executing God's justice?
- How does Zechariah 2:8 affirm the protection of God's people?

APPLICATION

- How can you entrust situations of injustice to God?
- In what ways can you be a voice for justice in your community?
- How can you actively seek God's protection in your daily life?

PRAYER FOCUS

- Pray for discernment to understand God's justice and vengeance.
- Ask for protection and deliverance from any form of evil or harassment.
- Seek guidance to recognize and support true prophetic voices in your community.

NEXT STEP

Reflect on areas in your life where you need to trust God's justice and commit them to Him in prayer.

CONCLUSION

God's vengeance is a profound expression of His justice, aimed at ending wickedness and protecting His people. By understanding and embracing this divine justice, believers can experience peace and security, knowing that God is their ultimate protector and avenger.