Revival Fire in Africa

At a Glance

BIG IDEA

Revival in Africa is not just for the continent but for the entire church, emphasizing the need for continuous spiritual fervor. The power of God is given for missions and helping the helpless, but it requires humility to avoid corruption. God promises to rekindle any dying or extinguished spiritual fire, urging believers to return to foundational spiritual practices.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Leviticus 6:12-13

Revelation 1:8

Acts 1:8

Ezekiel 37:1-10

1 Peter 5:8

Key Takeaways

- Revival in Africa is a call for the global church.
- Spiritual fire must be continuously maintained.
- God's power is for missions and aiding others.
- Humility is essential to handle spiritual power.
- God can revive any dying spiritual fire.

Introduction

The concept of revival fire serves as a powerful metaphor for a global call to spiritual renewal. It challenges believers worldwide to maintain their spiritual fervor and embrace their responsibility in missions and service. This study explores how God's power is intended for the benefit of others and the importance of humility in wielding such power.

Scripture Reading

- Leviticus 6:12-13 — Emphasizes the need for continuous spiritual fervor, symbolized by the unending fire on the altar.
- Revelation 1:8 — Assures believers that Jesus, the Alpha and Omega, will sustain the revival.
- Acts 1:8 — Highlights the purpose of receiving power for witnessing and spreading the gospel.
- 1 Peter 5:8 — Warns believers to remain vigilant in maintaining their spiritual fire.
- Matthew 12:20 — Illustrates God's willingness to restore and not quench a dimly burning fire.

Key Points

1. Global Call for Revival — The revival is a message for the entire church, urging believers worldwide to embrace spiritual renewal and fervor. This call transcends geographical boundaries, inviting all to participate in a movement of the Spirit that seeks to ignite passion and commitment in the hearts of believers everywhere. The continuous fire on the altar in Leviticus symbolizes the need for ongoing dedication to spiritual growth and renewal.
  - Reflect on your personal spiritual fervor and areas needing renewal.
  - Engage in prayer for global revival, including your local community.
  - Participate in church activities that promote spiritual growth.

Scripture: Leviticus 6:12-13

Key Points (cont.)

2. Purpose of Spiritual Power — God's power is granted for the purpose of missions and helping those in need. This power is not for personal gain but for the advancement of God's kingdom and the support of the helpless. Acts 1:8 reminds believers that the Holy Spirit empowers them to be witnesses, spreading the gospel to all corners of the earth. Humility is crucial in handling this power to prevent corruption and misuse.
  - Identify ways you can use your gifts to serve others.
  - Pray for humility in your service and leadership roles.
  - Seek opportunities to support missions and outreach programs.

Scripture: Acts 1:8

3. Rekindling Spiritual Fire — God is capable of reviving any dying or extinguished spiritual fire. Believers are encouraged to return to foundational spiritual practices, such as prayer, worship, and Scripture study, to rekindle their spiritual fervor.

- Evaluate your spiritual practices and identify areas for improvement.
- Commit to regular prayer and Bible study to strengthen your faith.
- Encourage others who may be struggling in their spiritual journey.

Scripture: Matthew 12:20
