How to set boundaries in your speech

Watch the inflow to your heart.

TEXT REVIEW

Isaiah 14:12-16

A proud will be thrown down from where he is.

The desires of the proud brings their destruction.

It makes them to replaced and be withdrawn from glorious opportunities.

A proud person will be despised and be disgraced.

TEACHING METHOD

Leader should use discussion method.

TIME MANAGEMENT

Share the teaching time using suggested time schedule.

LESSON OUTLINE ONE

INGREDIENTS OF PRIDE

Pride has associates and they walk together in ruining their prey, the associates are;

Self-satisfaction

Arrogance and boasting.

High mindedness

Conceit and presumption.

Pride is essentially dangerous because of its silence and stealth at which it operates, when it seats in someone's heart, it is difficult to uproot or pin down. Pride is basically a sin that has its roots in the attitude of the heart. A proud person will always make emphasis on himself and his achievements.

LESSON OUTLINE TWO

CHARACTERISTICS OF A PROUD

Always make reference to themselves just like Satan did five times in Isaiah 14:12-16. "I will ascend, I will exalt my throne, I will sit, I will ascend above and I will be like Most High".

Always display an unwarranted attitude of confidence.

Always display inordinate ambition such as displayed by the devil.

A proud person is always dissatisfied when his agend fails to actualized.

A proud person fills uncomfortable with a low placement in life, wants to supplant others to achieve his goal.

A proud finds expression through in their display in speech.

SUMMARY

A proud will be thrown down from where he is.

CONCLUSION

The proud will not escape God's terrible judgement, therefore be warned, there is an inevitable downfall of a proud person.

PRAYER POINTS

- Father, send help to the helpless.
- Every siege of pride against is dismantled in Jesus name.
