Key Takeaways

- Intentionality is crucial in pursuing God.
- Spiritual growth involves accessing new dimensions in Christ.
- Lukewarmness leads to spiritual rejection.
- Consistent and heartfelt prayer is essential.
- Worldly friendships hinder spiritual pursuit.

Introduction

The pursuit of God is a journey that requires intentionality and dedication. It is not a passive endeavor but one that demands our full attention and commitment. By setting our hearts on seeking God, we open ourselves to spiritual growth and transformation. This study will explore how we can pursue God purposefully and the impact it has on our spiritual lives.

Scripture Reading

- Colossians 1:26 — Understanding the mystery of Christ in us as the hope of glory.
- 2 Corinthians 5:17 — Embracing the new creation identity in Christ.
- Ephesians 1:4 — Recognizing the spiritual blessings available in Christ.
- Romans 8:32 — Trusting in God's provision and love.
- Jeremiah 29:13 — The importance of seeking God wholeheartedly.
- Revelation 3:16 — The danger of being lukewarm in faith.

Key Points

1. Intentional Pursuit — Pursuing God requires deliberate effort and focus. It involves setting priorities that align with spiritual growth and maintaining a consistent relationship with God. Intentional pursuit means actively seeking God through prayer, scripture, and worship. It is about making God the center of our lives and decisions.

- Set aside daily time for prayer and scripture reading.
- Evaluate your priorities to ensure they align with spiritual growth.
- Seek accountability from fellow believers to stay focused on your pursuit of God.

Scripture: Jeremiah 29:13    Matthew 6:33

2. Dimensions in Christ — Spiritual growth is about accessing deeper realms in Christ. This involves understanding and living out the spiritual blessings and identity we have in Him. As we grow in our knowledge of Christ, we begin to experience the fullness of life that He offers. This growth is a continuous journey of discovering more about who we are in Christ.
- Reflect on your identity in Christ and how it influences your daily life.
  - Study passages that highlight the spiritual blessings in Christ.
  - Share your journey of spiritual growth with others to encourage them.

Scripture: Colossians 1:26 Ephesians 1:4

3. Avoiding Lukewarmness — Being lukewarm in faith leads to spiritual rejection. It's crucial to maintain fervor and passion in our relationship with God. Lukewarmness can creep in when we become complacent or distracted by worldly concerns. To avoid this, we must continually renew our commitment to God and seek to deepen our relationship with Him.
  - Identify areas in your life where you may be lukewarm and take steps to reignite your passion for God.
  - Engage in regular self-reflection and repentance to keep your faith vibrant.
  - Participate in community worship and fellowship to stay spiritually engaged.

Scripture: Revelation 3:16

Key Points (cont.)

4. Consistent Prayer — Prayer must be consistent and heartfelt to be effective. It is a vital component of a strong spiritual life. Through prayer, we communicate with God, express our dependence on Him, and align our will with His. Consistent prayer helps us stay connected to God and strengthens our faith.

- Develop a daily prayer routine that includes thanksgiving, confession, and supplication.
- Keep a prayer journal to track answered prayers and ongoing requests.
- Join a prayer group to encourage consistency and accountability.

Scripture: 1 Thessalonians 5:17

2 Timothy 2:15

Key Points (cont.)

5. Worldly Distractions — Friendship with the world creates enmity with God. We must guard against worldly influences that can hinder our spiritual pursuit. These distractions can come in many forms, such as materialism, unhealthy relationships, or cultural pressures. By focusing on God and His kingdom, we can overcome these distractions and remain faithful in our pursuit.
- Identify and eliminate distractions that pull you away from God.
  - Cultivate relationships that encourage spiritual growth.
  - Focus on eternal values rather than temporary worldly gains.

Scripture: James 4:4

Group Discussion

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.
