THE WAITING ROOM

MEMORY VERSE

For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Habakkuk 2:3 KJV

BIBLE TEXT

Job 14:14

INTRODUCTION

The most difficult place to be in life is the waiting room: a laboratory, a hospital, an interview, an examination, or waiting on God for a particular miracle.

Our focus today is the WAITING ROOM OF GOD: waiting on God may be one of the most difficult aspects of the Christian life.

In the book of Acts 1, Jesus commanded His disciples to wait for the promise.

LESSON OUTLINE ONE

DELAY IS NOT DENIAL

Our God is the God of times and seasons, Eccl. 3. Therefore, there is an appointed time for whatever he wants to do. Zechariah and Elizabeth: Their delay in having a child was orchestrated by God so that their son, John the Baptist, could fulfil the pivotal role of preparing the way for Jesus Christ - the Saviour. Their waiting served a grander redemptive purpose.

Abraham and Sarah: Their long wait for the child of promise - Isaac, as described in Genesis 18:10, demonstrated God's faithfulness to His covenant and His ability to act beyond human limitations. The "appointed time" was God's time, not theirs, showcasing His sovereign control over life and destiny.

- The Man at the Pool of Bethesda: His 38 years of waiting for healing at the pool (John 5) underscores the theme that even prolonged suffering and delay can be met by God's perfect timing and intervention. Jesus' arrival and direct command brought healing in a way the man could not achieve through his own efforts or the pool's supposed power.

- Joseph waited for the fulfilment of His dreams and visions despite all the challenges he faced.

God has a purpose for your life. - Jer. 1:5

What you call delay is the season of preparation.

LESSON OUTLINE TWO

BENEFITS OF BEING IN GOD'S WAITING ROOM

- Our faith and character are built. James 1:3
- Our strength is being renewed Isaiah 40:31
- Helps us to fulfil purpose. Genesis 21:2, Acts 1.
- Helps us to learn to trust God. Psalm 27:14.

CONCLUSION

God has a set time for everything. If it seems like God is silent or hasn't answered your prayers, it is not because He is sleeping; He is waiting for the appointed time.
