

RCCG OCEANIA

Faith & Trust

GOD'S UNCHANGING CALL AND HEALING

AT A GLANCE

BIG IDEA

Explore the unchanging nature of God's call and the power of healing through faith. Understand how ministering the Word, acting on it, and being led by the Spirit can manifest healing and restoration. Learn about the role of special faith in overcoming spiritual challenges.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Romans 11:29

Isaiah 53:4-5

Matthew 8:17

1 Peter 2:24

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- God's gifts and calling are irrevocable, offering assurance and purpose.
- Healing is already accomplished through Jesus' sacrifice.
- Ministering the Word and acting on it are crucial for experiencing healing.
- Being led by the Spirit is essential in the process of healing and deliverance.
- Special faith is sometimes necessary to overcome spiritual challenges.

INTRODUCTION

In a world of change and uncertainty, the constancy of God's call and the promise of healing through Jesus provide believers with a foundation of hope and purpose. This study explores the irrevocable nature of God's gifts and the power of faith in realizing healing and restoration.

SCRIPTURE READING

- Romans 11:29 — Emphasizes the permanence of God's gifts and calling.
- Isaiah 53:4-5 — Affirms that Jesus bore our sickness and pain, providing a basis for healing.
- Matthew 8:17 — Shows that Jesus took our infirmities, reinforcing the promise of healing.
- 1 Peter 2:24 — Declares that by Jesus' stripes, we were healed, confirming the completed work of healing.

KEY POINTS

1. GOD'S IRREVOCABLE GIFTS — God's gifts and calling are without repentance, providing a foundation of assurance and purpose for believers. This unchanging nature of God's call encourages faithfulness and commitment. Believers can rest in the certainty that God's purpose for their lives remains constant, regardless of circumstances.

- Reflect on the gifts and calling God has placed in your life.
- Commit to using your gifts for God's glory, knowing they are irrevocable.
- Encourage others by reminding them of the permanence of God's call.

Scripture: Romans 11:29

2. HEALING THROUGH JESUS — Healing is a completed work through Jesus' sacrifice. Believers are encouraged to claim this promise by faith, understanding that Jesus bore our sickness and pain. This assurance allows believers to approach God with confidence, knowing that healing is part of the redemption Jesus provided.

- Pray for healing with the confidence that it is already accomplished through Jesus.
- Share testimonies of healing to build faith in others.
- Meditate on scriptures that affirm Jesus' healing work.

Scripture: Isaiah 53:4-5 Matthew 8:17 1 Peter 2:24

3. MINISTERING AND ACTING ON THE WORD — Ministering the Word and encouraging action upon it are vital steps in experiencing healing. This involves teaching, encouraging faith, and practical application. Believers are called to not only hear the Word but to act on it, allowing its power to manifest in their lives.

- Engage in regular Bible study to deepen your understanding of God's promises.
- Encourage others to act on the Word they receive.
- Apply biblical principles to daily life situations.

Scripture: 1 Peter 2:24

KEY POINTS (CONT.)

4. BEING LED BY THE SPIRIT — The guidance of the Holy Spirit is crucial in the process of healing and deliverance. Believers are encouraged to seek and follow the Spirit's leading. This involves being sensitive to the Spirit's promptings and trusting His direction in all circumstances.
 - Spend time in prayer and meditation to discern the Spirit's guidance.
 - Be open to the Spirit's leading in unexpected ways.
 - Trust the Spirit's direction even when it challenges your understanding.
5. SPECIAL FAITH FOR SPIRITUAL CHALLENGES — Special faith is sometimes required to overcome significant spiritual challenges, such as casting out devils. This faith is a gift that empowers believers to act beyond natural abilities. It is a divine enablement that allows believers to face and conquer obstacles that seem insurmountable.
 - Pray for the gift of faith in challenging situations.
 - Recognize and rely on God's power rather than your own abilities.
 - Encourage others to seek God's strength in their spiritual battles.

GROUP DISCUSSION

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.

OBSERVATION

- What does Romans 11:29 say about God's gifts and calling?
- How does Isaiah 53:4-5 describe Jesus' role in our healing?
- What is the significance of Jesus taking our infirmities in Matthew 8:17?
- How does 1 Peter 2:24 confirm the completed work of healing?

INTERPRETATION

- Why is it important that God's gifts and calling are irrevocable?
- How can believers claim the promise of healing through Jesus?
- What role does acting on the Word play in experiencing healing?
- Why is the guidance of the Holy Spirit essential in healing and deliverance?

APPLICATION

- How can you apply the assurance of God's irrevocable gifts in your life?
- In what ways can you claim and experience healing through faith?
- What steps can you take to ensure you are acting on the Word in your daily life?
- How can you become more sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading?

PRAYER FOCUS

- Pray for a deeper understanding of God's irrevocable gifts and calling.
- Ask for increased faith to claim and experience healing through Jesus.
- Seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit in all aspects of life.
- Pray for the gift of special faith to overcome spiritual challenges.

NEXT STEP

Reflect on how you can actively use your gifts and faith to minister healing and encouragement to others.

CONCLUSION

God's unchanging call and the promise of healing through Jesus provide believers with a profound assurance. By understanding and applying these truths, believers can experience the fullness of God's purpose and the power of healing in their lives. Let us commit to being led by the Spirit and acting on the Word, trusting in the irrevocable gifts and calling of God.