

RCCG OCEANIA

Holy Spirit & Power

DIMENSIONS OF KINGDOM COME

AT A GLANCE

BIG IDEA

The kingdom of God is not merely a religious concept but a comprehensive governmental system established through Jesus Christ. It involves the lordship, influence, and culture of Christ being manifested through believers. By understanding the kingdom as both a person and a program, believers can effectively participate in God's plan for world evangelization and discipleship.

PRIMARY PASSAGES

Daniel 2:44

Matthew 6

Colossians 1:15-19

Isaiah 6:8

Ephesians 3:10

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- The kingdom of God is a governmental concept, not just religious.
- Jesus embodies the kingdom as a person, while God's prophetic program represents the kingdom as a program.
- Believers are called to manifest the kingdom through their lives and actions.
- The church plays a crucial role in revealing God's wisdom to the world.
- Understanding and balancing the dimensions of the kingdom prevents spiritual imbalance.

INTRODUCTION

The concept of God's kingdom is multifaceted, encompassing both the person of Jesus Christ and the program of God's plan for the world. This study explores how believers can understand and engage with these dimensions to fulfill their role in God's kingdom.

SCRIPTURE READING

- Daniel 2:44 — Describes God's eternal kingdom that will stand forever, emphasizing its unshakeable nature.
- Matthew 6 — Explores the Lord's Prayer and the concept of 'Thy kingdom come,' highlighting the desire for God's rule on earth.
- Colossians 1:15-19 — Presents Jesus as the image of the invisible God, central to understanding the kingdom as a person.
- Isaiah 6:8 — Illustrates God's call for individuals to be sent for His work, aligning with the kingdom's program.
- Ephesians 3:10 — Describes the church's role in manifesting God's wisdom, linking to the kingdom's program.

KEY POINTS

1. KINGDOM AS A PERSON — Jesus Christ embodies the kingdom, representing the fullness of the Godhead and the ultimate authority. Understanding this dimension helps believers align their lives with His lordship and influence. Jesus is the visible image of the invisible God, and through Him, the kingdom is personified. By recognizing Jesus as the embodiment of the kingdom, believers can align their lives with His teachings and authority.

- Reflect on how Jesus' life and teachings influence your daily decisions.
- Seek to embody Christ's character in interactions with others.
- Study the Gospels to deepen understanding of Jesus as the kingdom personified.

Scripture: Colossians 1:15-19 Colossians 2:9

2. KINGDOM AS A PROGRAM — God's prophetic program involves the church's mission to manifest His wisdom and influence in the world. This includes evangelization, discipleship, and living out the kingdom's values. The church is tasked with revealing God's wisdom to the world, acting as a beacon of His kingdom. This programmatic aspect of the kingdom calls believers to actively participate in God's mission.

- Engage in community service as a reflection of kingdom values.
- Participate in church activities that focus on evangelism and discipleship.
- Pray for opportunities to share God's wisdom in everyday situations.

Scripture: Isaiah 6:8 Ephesians 3:10

3. MANIFESTING THE KINGDOM — Believers are called to manifest the kingdom through their lives, extending its influence beyond religious settings into all areas of life. This involves spiritual growth, leadership development, and empowerment. By living out kingdom principles, believers can influence their communities and workplaces, demonstrating the transformative power of God's kingdom.

- Identify areas in your life where you can better reflect kingdom values.
- Commit to personal spiritual growth through prayer and study.
- Encourage others in their journey to manifest the kingdom.

Scripture: Matthew 6 Revelation 4:6-8

GROUP DISCUSSION

Tip: Use these questions to guide the group from seeing → understanding → applying.

OBSERVATION

- What does Daniel 2:44 reveal about the nature of God's kingdom?
- How does Matthew 6 describe the coming of God's kingdom?
- In what ways is Jesus presented as central to the kingdom in Colossians 1:15-19?

INTERPRETATION

- How can the church fulfill its role in God's kingdom program according to Ephesians 3:10?
- What does it mean for believers to manifest the kingdom in their daily lives?
- How does Isaiah 6:8 illustrate the call to participate in God's kingdom program?

APPLICATION

- How can you align your life more closely with the kingdom as personified by Jesus?
- What practical steps can you take to participate in God's kingdom program?
- In what ways can you manifest the kingdom in your community or workplace?

PRAYER FOCUS

- Pray for a deeper understanding of Jesus as the embodiment of God's kingdom.
- Ask for guidance in participating actively in God's kingdom program.
- Seek empowerment to manifest kingdom values in daily life.

NEXT STEP

Reflect on how you can align your life with the teachings and authority of Jesus to manifest the kingdom of God.

CONCLUSION

Understanding the dimensions of God's kingdom as both a person and a program empowers believers to live out their faith in transformative ways. By aligning with Jesus and participating in God's mission, believers can effectively manifest the kingdom in their lives and communities.